Farm owner finds loophole to fight £1,000 council bill

A FAMILY farm hopes to escape a crippling bill for displaying its animals after discovering that the site could be exempt from charges.

Fancys Family Farm Community Interest Company on Portland had been horrified at the prospect of paying up to £1,000 for publicly displaying its wallabies, tortoises and a parrot which are all rescue animals.

Owner Su Illsley said: "Weymouth and Portland council approached us and said that if we wanted to continue to publicly display those animals then we would have to apply for a zoo licence at more than £400 plus vet inspection fees.

"If we had had to pay such a bill it would really have hurt our finances, but we carried out research which showed that we could possibly get dispensation under the Zoo Licensing Act to continue as we are but just with a yearly inspection to avoid having to pay the licence. "We then went back to the council, the council did their own investigation and not only agreed that we were eligible for the dispensation but they even applied for it for us!

by Harry Walton

"We are now waiting to hear from the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs whether or not our appeal for dispensation has been successful."

Fancys is a hugely popular free attraction on the island which displays the only registered flock of Portland sheep, donkeys, goats, chickens, ducks and pigs as well as the parrot, wallabies and tortoises.

Su said: "We are very hopeful that we will get that dispensation in the next few weeks which will secure our future.

"Hopefully all authorities are now happy with our status and will let us carry on educating the many children who come here to see our animals."

Weymouth and Portland licensing committee member Councillor Kevin Hodder welcomed the news and said: "The way ahead now seems like a sensible way forward for everyone.

"It enables Fancys to continue without facing an enormous fee and everyone is happy."

JEMMA THOMPSON moved to Bridport aged just a few months old when her grandfather became stand-in vicar for the Powerstock Parish.

Studying art in Liverpool and signwriting in Devon, but always calling Bridport home, Jemma went on to design and paint many of the signs in the town, including shop signs for Lula, Get Stuffed, Bella's Cake Shop, Cornucopia and the Red Brick Cafe sign in the Rope Walks car park, as well as restoring the Coats of Arms in the Town Hall, and gilding the weather vane on its dome.

In 2012 Jemma was attacked by a man wielding a hammer while walking on Langdon Hill, an event she describes as a turning point in her life. She has publicly expressed sympathy for her attacker.

● WHAT made you take up animal portraits?

I started taking animal portraits commissions after drawing my first boyfriend's dog in 1992. The picture was a bit of a hit with friends, who then asked me to draw their dogs. It has been that way since then. I have been commissioned to draw sheep, and a chinchilla, as well as horses, cats and dogs. I'd like to have some farm animal commissions, that'd be great.

● HOW did you get into signwriting?

I got into traditional signwriting in 1999, having finished my art foundation course in Liverpool and not really knowing where to go next. I came home and saw Colin Grainger up a ladder in South Street painting 12" high letters on a shop fascia. I drew up the courage to ask if I could have a go as it looked beautiful. Colin very kindly allowed me to go up the ladder and fill in some of his outlined letters.

The signwriter's brush has huge long soft sable hairs and was so wonderful to use. I asked him if I could work with him, but he sadly declined as he only had enough work for a one man business.

But he marked out my name on a piece of wood, gave me a brush and some paint and asked me to start with that. I then went to South Devon College to train on the last traditional signwriting course in the UK where I won an award for being the best signwriter in 30 years.

I was super keen and a real perfectionist at the time. Thankfully I am somewhat more relaxed now.

● WHAT are the signs you most admire?

Those which speak of an educated human hand and eye. Those that have light brushstrokes, a clear simple well spaced layout, and colours which are easily read and speak to the reader at the necessary different volume.

Strangely enough, they are the ones that look so simple, like nothing has gone into them. But to achieve that has taken years and years of practice and an intuitive understanding of a natural, aesthetic, readable balance, which a computer cannot achieve.

● IS THERE a type of sign you dislike?

I'm not too keen on vinyl, plastics and fabricated signs, mainly due to ecological reasons, but also due to the fact they are often produced by computer programs and sometimes people who have had no training. They have bred a huge wave of badly designed impersonal ugly signage across the world.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

● HOW has the hammer attack affected you?

In many ways it has been a great turning point. Having had such a huge head injury like that, I am much more alert and consciously aware now, rather than dreamy eyed reflective art student, irresponsibly daydreaming her life away. I now have a much healthier attitude towards life, knowing that it could disappear or be taken from me at any moment.

● AND it has affected how you react to paints?

Yes, I am investigating finding ecological paints to use for my signs, as the good old treacle type stuff I use at the moment is highly toxic for me as well as the planet.

It even states on the tin that it can cause, cancer, birth defects and reproductive issues and attacks your immune system.

A lot of household items have similar warnings but we tend to ignore them. But post attack, my body is much more sensitive to anything 'attacking its system', so a healthier attitude and sense of balance all-round has come from it. Hopefully it is the same for him too but I don't know.

● IF YOU could write one sign that sums up your view on life, what would it be?

I think it would read 'Common Sense' on a deep green base, a block round hand letter with a soft yellow face, a gilt reflection on the bottom and a light blue shadow to express a 'middle of the road' type of understanding, and that we are all responsible for where we are at.

● WHAT objects do you always carry with you?

Whatever book I am into at the time. More recently I have started carrying a sketch book and pencil with me again.

● WHAT is your earliest memory?

Sitting on a potty, in the sun, next to our garden pond in Victoria Grove, transfixed by a ladybird crawling over the back of my hand.

● WHO has inspired you most in your life?

Pat Bowcock of Ourganics in Litton Cheney has to be right up there on the wall of super inspiring people. She has given so much to me and to the local community by her ethical, self-sufficient, sustainable philosophy.

Just by the way that she lives on her smallholding, working with the community and her responsible attitude towards life around her in general is hugely inspiring.

My family too of course. They have been an amazing support this past year and we have a much greater sense of togetherness post the attack than I have ever known.

Parking changes backed by council

FREE overnight stays and a first hour charge slashed from £1.30 to just 80 pence are among major parking changes backed by councillors for Weymouth and Portland.

Other measures include replacing ageing pay-and-display machines, introducing new pay options including pay-by-phone and a range of new permits for selected groups of motorists including town centre workers.

Taxi drivers will be able to park free between jobs in selected car parks, £25 shoppers' permits will allow two hours free parking in the morning or afternoon and there are proposals for wider use of car parks such as for drive-in movies, car sales, venue hire and environmentally friendly adventure play areas.

But there were also controversial measures put before a meeting of Weymouth and Portland management committee including removing parking bays along Custom House Quay, a loss bemoaned by Oz Kanji who presented a 796-signature petition against the idea which he urged members to reconsider.

Guesthouse owners including Blane Hawkins were less than happy at a proposed hike from £70 to £100 for permits for guests which they said would have a detrimental effect on their visitors particularly the elderly and infirm. Councillor Joy Stanley said the increase might even "cripple" smaller guesthouses.

But Weymouth and Portland Chamber of Commerce president Mark Blunden backed all key proposals as "another step towards revival" and said it was a sign saying:

by Harry Walton
hdsalton@yahoo.co.uk

"Welcome to Weymouth and Portland. We are open for business".

Transport spokesman Councillor Christine James introduced the proposals which she said were "comprehensive, feasible and sustainable", adding they should not be "cherry-picked" but taken as a whole.

She also warned that the measures were not "done and dusted" as talks were needed with Dorset County Council while the question of permits was something "we need to discuss and perhaps look at again".

An important aspect of councillors' approval was their grant of delegated authority to parking head Chris Graves to make any necessary refinements to recommendations approved by the meeting.

That ongoing development of parking proposals will have to take on board talks with DCC on August 5th including on-street parking.

County sent management's meeting an eleventh-hour letter which claimed they had not been consulted about the parking proposals and felt they promoted car journeys into Weymouth town centre and "undermined the use of public transport".

But Councillor Ian Roebuck said county's opinion was "viewed from their lens and not from the point of the wider view of the town", adding that the proposals were "an essential part of the economics of the town" and it was important to accept them as a whole while constantly reviewing them.

Councillor Andy Blackwood welcomed the parking revolution and said there was "no way the proposals will please everyone in every respect", but Weymouth and Portland had to have DCC "working with us" and he was concerned they claimed not to have been consulted.

He urged a clear review timetable to keep tabs on how parking changes were doing and a report six months after the new parking proposals are implemented was discussed.

Acting chairman Councillor Peter Chapman said the proposals were "comprehensive" and were not something which had been "drawn up on the back of a fag packet".

He hoped they would increase parking use and footfall and reduce penalties and he said: "This is going to be a rolling process. We will listen, we will tweak. It is not going to be perfect from day one, but we will change if necessary."

The proposals will now be subject to further consultations, including possible changes to parking restrictions having to be advertised for public comment or objection under the statutory process.

If objections are received in respect of those advertisements they would have to be considered by the council's Planning and Traffic Committee which would decide whether or not the proposal should be proceeded with.

Men arrested following fight

SIX men have been arrested after a big fight in Weymouth.

Police say the arrests followed an incident where three men were allegedly assaulted during the fight in Bond Street with the clash continuing on to Maiden Street.

Officers said reports indicated that the incident at about 2.05am on Tuesday, July 2nd, initially started when three men were asked to leave the Lazy Lizard pub, events escalating into a fight between seven people.

A 37-year-old Weymouth man suffered a minor head injury, but was knocked unconscious for a short time.

Detective Constable Peter Gray, of Weymouth CID, said: "This incident took place in the early hours of the morning.

"I am appealing for witnesses to the incident to contact Dorset Police in confidence, in particular anyone who saw the alleged disturbance start on Bond Street.

"I am also keen to speak with anyone who may have further information about the incident to help me establish exactly what happened."

Four Weymouth men, one aged 30 and the other three aged 23, an 18-year-old man from Dorchester, and a 20-year-old Bridport man have all been arrested in relation to this incident and bailed until early August.

Tunnel re-opens week early

WEYMOUTH'S Wyke Road Tunnel has re-opened one week ahead of schedule.

The tunnel, which carries the Rodwell Trail under Wyke Road, closed for repair in May this year.

A diversion route was put in place so that contractors could carry out repairs including fixing a permanent drainage layer to the tunnel walls, applying a sprayed concrete lining to the inside of the tunnel and connecting the new drainage layer to new drainage channels and soakaways.

The tunnel is now open to Rodwell Trail users and contractors will be visiting the site over the coming weeks to work on the finishing stages of the project, including the installation of new lighting inside the tunnel.

Celebration of sport to mark Olympic anniversary

RESIDENTS and visitors will be able to enjoy a festival of sport this summer when Weymouth and Portland council and partners host the 2013 Dorset Festival of Sport.

The event will mark the first anniversary of the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic sailing events in the borough.

It will be held from Saturday, July 27th to Monday, August 5th and will include a two-day sports arena, a disability sports day, a team sports day, a fun day, the Battens Charity Volleyball Championship, the RAF Beach Volleyball Classic and fireworks.

There will be beach volleyball, beach tennis and table tennis as well as kayaking and stand-up paddle boarding taster sessions provided by Ecover The Blue Mile and a mobile skate park on the Weymouth Pavilion forecourt for scooters and BMX bikes.

A Disability Beach Festival will be held on July 29th including seated volleyball and boccia to pay tribute to the Paralympic Games.

The festival will also see youth football and rugby played on the beach, Weymouth College will stage a day of water sports and youth team sports and top players will compete in the 30th RAF Weymouth Beach Classic championship will be held from August 1st-4th.

County sports manager Dave Franks said: "The festival allows people to taste a variety of land and water sports to perhaps find a new interest and improve the health.

"July 27th is also the first anniversary of the Olympic sailing events starting in Weymouth and Portland and we hope people give us as much support as we had last year when thousands came down to the beach to enjoy our attractions."

Team Dorset Challenge co-ordinator Vikki Harman said: "We want to encourage people to pursue more sport as part of our campaign to improve people's health. Sport and health go hand in hand and this festival will do a lot to boost community health."

Weymouth and Portland community facilities spokesman Councillor Andy Blackwood said: "The programme this year has been scaled back in comparison with last year due to funding but it will still be a fantastic opportunity for people to have a go at sports or cheer on as a spectator. We want to keep the sporting legacy of the Games going."

Many Dorset based organisations will be taking part in the Festival including Weymouth College, Weymouth Swimming Pool, Redlands Sports Hub, Osprey Leisure Centre, Active Dorset and Dorset County Council.

County cabinet public health and community services spokesman Peter Finney said: "It is great to be able to continue the work started for the Olympics and Paralympics. I'd encourage everyone, regardless of ability or age, to take part and enjoy."

Active Dorset chief executive Martin Kimberley said: "We are delighted that so many of the partners who helped deliver the successful sports arena on Weymouth Beach during the Olympic and Paralympic period have come together again for the Dorset Festival of Sport 2013 which will again offer free have-a-go sessions for a number of sports."

As well as these sporting events, residents and visitors to the beach this summer will be greeted by the welcome return of one of last year's biggest successes the Ambassadors. They will be on hand during the ten day festival, giving information about what is happening each day and about the area to visitors.

Funding to encourage wildlife careers

WILDLIFE Trusts in Dorset, Devon, Somerset, and Wiltshire have received initial support for a £829,200 bid from the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) under its Skills for the Future programme for their Wild Futures project.

The project aims to attract more people from disadvantaged backgrounds to the conservation workforce.

The bid will also include those in transitional phases of their lives and careers, helping to develop the skills and knowledge required to pursue a career in nature conservation.

Development funding of £9,600 has also been awarded to help Wildlife Trusts in Devon, Dorset, Somerset and Wiltshire work together to progress their plans to apply for a full grant at a later date.

Wild Futures will provide new career opportunities for people from a wide range of backgrounds, especially young people.

Working in partnership the four wildlife trusts will deliver a total of 48 training placements over a three-year period, 12 in each county consisting of a combination of work-based training and accredited training in specific skills.

Trainees will receive training in: Wildlife Survey, Monitoring and Management Planning; Volunteer and Community Engagement; Practical Conservation Skills.

Director of Operations for Dorset Wildlife Trust, Brian Bleese said: "The Heritage Lottery funded Wild Futures project will make a huge contribution to the skills and knowledge available in the nature conservation workforce in Dorset."

"It will also provide opportunities for dedicated individuals to take their first steps towards an interesting and rewarding career."

Riders raise £1,500 for Weldmar Hospice

WELDMAR Hospicecare Trust held a pony ride around the Cricchel Estate near Wimborne, raising more than £1,500 from 80 riders.

The event took in eight miles of beautiful countryside and riders were treated to delicious refreshments on the day.

Riders were able to purchase photographs taken on the day by Dorchester-based photographer Richard Budd and all proceeds from his sales were donated to Weldmar.

Richard visited Joseph Weld Hospice, Weldmar's inpatient unit in Dorchester, to present his cheque for almost £220.

Verity Bayley, Weldmar's Community Fundraiser for North Dorset said "We had a brilliant day and I would like to thank everyone who took part. They have all contributed to the help raise vital funds which the trust rely on to help us to continue to deliver our services, including our nurse based at the Blandford Community Hospital, day hospice and in-patient unit".

Senior positions axed as council try to save £1million

SENIOR positions are to be axed as Weymouth and Portland and West Dorset's partnership working tries to save an extra £1million on top of £2million already saved.

When the two councils originally joined forces to try and save money there were two chief executives, eight directors or general managers and 47 third tier managers.

Phase ne saw this cut to one chief executive, four directors and just 16 service managers.

Now a meeting of Weymouth and Portland's management committee has backed further savings being made which will see one director and five service managers lose their jobs to leave one chief executive, three directors and ten service managers, one service manager having transferred to the Dorset Waste Partnership.

The new structure will save £525,000 annually and is a key element of an overall phase two savings target of £1million per annum.

Tributes were paid to hard-working staff under "severe pressure" in the current financial climate and chief executive

by Harry Walton
hds Walton@yahoo.co.uk

utive David Clarke said all savings proposals were "to protect front line services as far as possible".

Councillor Andy Blackwood regretted that the council had been forced into adopting these changes and structures "which are probably not more efficient", adding that this was "not the end of the story".

He said the authority faced actually having to do even more, perhaps savings of nine or ten per cent per year, and he questioned how many more savings could be made before "front line services are hugely affected". It couldn't go on year after year, he said.

Mr Clarke warned that there was a current campaign to look at each service provided by the authority "and it won't be long before we are asking members if they are happy with those services".

The next big step would be where the partnership went from there including what duties might be shouldered by town and parish councils.

Mr Clarke said that talks would be needed with the public on which services they valued and, even with a very flexible workforce, "none of this is going to be easy".

Mr Blackwood warned that the council could not continue to absorb cuts in funding in terms of staffing and would soon have to make "some very hard decisions about the level of services we provide for the public".

Finance chief Jason Vaughan warned that the council "can't just keep on cutting" and that "things have got to change" while acting chairman Councillor Peter Chapman said the council's room to manoeuvre was getting smaller and smaller and "we really do have to think long and hard about every penny and pound".

The meeting then agreed to note the proposed new senior management structure for the shared services partnership and to await a report into its implications.

Community artwork goes up on the wall

WEYMOUTH'S Giant Wall, a community project displaying fabric portraits of local heroes, has gone on permanent display at the town's Community Safety Centre on Radipole Lane.

More than 200 portraits are on exhibit thanks to the efforts of Artwey, a group of artists living and working in the Weymouth and Portland area.

Spokesman Carol Cruickshank said: "I think it looks fantastic and it is a nice, light, bright area for it to be displayed."

Centre spokesman Vikki Thomas said: "It is a beautiful addition to the artwork we have here and we are really pleased to welcome the Giant Wall to the centre."

BID needs you! Meeting called to elect management team

WEYMOUTH Business Improvement District has called an extraordinary general meeting on July 18th when a new management board will be elected.

The meeting will be held at the Green Room, Weymouth Pavilion at 6pm.

Letters have been sent to every business in the levy payment area inviting them to consider a place on the management board, which will consist of 17 members.

Weymouth BID chairman Barrie Huett said: "The Weymouth BID has a golden opportunity to help improve the trading environment in Weymouth and Portland over the five years of the BID business plan."

"Every business in the Weymouth BID area now has the opportunity to have their say and contribute to making the Weymouth BID a success by standing as a director of Weymouth BID management board.

"Board directors will help support the BID to deliver the business plan, monitor its progress and performance and to help make strategic decisions to achieve aims and ambitions.

"This role should not be taken lightly as, while it is a voluntary position, those on the board will be expected to actively participate and be able to bring skills and experience that help the BID with the support of its operational team to achieve its goals."

If any business owner is interested in standing as a director of the Weymouth BID Ltd and has the time and skill sets that could help the Weymouth BID achieve its business plan then they should visit the BID's website - www.weymouthbid.co.uk - to download the nomination forms and find out more details. The closing date for nominations is July 15th by 6pm.

A recruitment process is now also underway for the Weymouth BID Manager.

COUNCILLORS have granted Weymouth Bid Improvement District a £77,250 advance to help set up its operation.

The cash, which will be released in £20,000 bites as needed, will be repaid by December 31st using the first money collected from businesses by the BID levy, which will seek to collect a total of around £1.5 million over five years to use for the benefit of the town.

Councillor Kate Wheller told a meeting of Weymouth and Portland management committee: "I would like to see regular reports on the BID coming back to all council members so we know how things are going."

Economic development spokesman Councillor Ian Munro-Price said: "It is important that the BID can get running as soon as possible.

"By not granting their request for an advance the BID might be delayed for a couple of months."

He added that he felt the BID was "very, very exciting for the town centre" and he recommended colleagues to grant the advance, members unanimously approving the money.

Passing on keys to success

HUNDREDS of keys have been handed to Phil Say and his Weymouth Pavilion Community Interest Company which is now officially in charge of the complex.

Contracts were signed to formally complete the changeover and Mr Say hit the ground running by saying: "The first thing I have to do now is make sure we are open, ready and prepared for rehearsals on July 18th and Julie Storey's Let's Dance show on July 19th.

"This handover was quite a quick process thanks to the help of the council and the efficiency of council staff. The key message is that once the decision was made to let us run the Pavilion then it was supported fully by the authority and its officers."

Mr Say said he now had so many keys he felt like "the jailer of Weymouth".

He added: "It has been a long process, but I am very pleased that it has been completed and signed on the dotted line...and I can't wait to start using some of these keys!"

His staff team is starting to come together and a lot of the main places are now filled, Mr Say adding that some of those applying to work for him had worked part-time at the Pavilion in the past, so their knowledge could be very useful.

He said: "We are particularly pleased that we had 99 percent success with a test run of all major equipment kindly left here by the council.

"This handover would not have been possible without the council's help, that of our solicitor Lee Wilkins and council officers such as Anita Williams.

"Finally the biggest thank-you has to go to my partner, Louise Dominey, who has supported me with this huge project. Without her by my side it would have been impossible Weymouth and Portland community facilities spokesman Councillor Andy Blackwood handed over a fistful of jingling keys and said: "It is nice to see Mr Say in charge. The alternative was to demolish the Pavilion. I didn't want that and neither did a lot of other people.

■ COUNCILLOR Andy Blackwood officially hands over the Pavilion keys to Phil Say (right)

by Harry Walton
hdswalton@yahoo.co.uk

"But this is not the end of the story. It is going to be hard work to make the Pavilion successful and, from a very personal point of view, I really hope he succeeds.

"It is important for Weymouth's tourist trade. The Pavilion is part of a bigger package and the council works very hard to provide a whole range of facilities.

"I would really like to see local people re-engage with the Pavilion. That is where its success has got to lie."

Weymouth and Portland

resources director Jason Vaughan signed for the council and said: "We still own the building but I am very pleased that Phil Say has now taken over the running of the Pavilion to keep this valuable community asset going.

"We couldn't hand him a single key to mark the occasion...because there are hundreds of them!"

Sun shines on church fete

■ MORE than 20 stalls were on show when Weymouth's St Paul's Church held its annual summer fete.

Attractions ranged from books, plants and a coconut shy to cakes, a tombola and bottle stalls.

Entertainment was provided by Beechcroft St Paul's Choir and the June Hornby dancers with music from The Veterans.

Event organiser Helen Green (pictured above) said: "We couldn't have asked for better weather which was lovely as it poured with rain last year.

"Everything from this year's fete will go towards general funds for the upkeep of the church."

Scooter stolen from bike shelter

THIEVES have stolen a £250 End of Days scooter from the bike shelter at Holy Trinity School, Weymouth.

The theft happened sometime between 8.30am, on July 4th and 8.15am on July 5th.

Police say the scooter, which had been locked to another scooter, was black and bronze with a skull emblem on the stem. It also had black handlebar grips with green ends.

Officers added that the child involved had greatly upset a child and they were keen to hear from anybody with information. Anyone able to help should ring 101 quoting crime number 26678.

Former carnival queen replaces president after resignation

WEYMOUTH Carnival president Ryan Hope has resigned for "personal reasons" just weeks before the town's biggest day of the year.

His place as president will be taken by current vice-president and former carnival queen, Lucy Compton.

Borough councillor Mr Hope, who helped spearhead a new look for the town's popular event, told the View: "I have resigned for personal reasons which are nothing to do with carnival."

"I need to deal with them and as such cannot devote the time to carnival that it needs."

"Carnival is being looked after by a fine group of people and I wish them well for the future."

There are now less than six weeks to go to carnival on August 21st and the shock news of Mr Hope's resignation came as carnival's committee urged people to get their thinking caps on with friends, family and colleagues to plan their walking or float procession entries. Committee member Diane Moore said: "Entering

by Harry Walton
hds Walton@yahoo.co.uk

Weymouth Carnival procession does not have to be expensive. With so many charity shops, Puddletown Scrapstore and those unused bits and pieces we all have lying around the house, it's easy to find materials for next to nothing. It's all about creative recycling!

"If you get stuck, The Party Shop on Abbotsbury road has a treasure trove of carnival essentials at affordable prices. It's also free to enter the carnival procession for both walking groups and floats. Motorised entries will need public liability insurance along with four volunteers to walk with the float to ensure everyone's safety."

Procession manager Elaine Freedman teaches people how to make carnival costumes.

She said: "The most important first steps to take are to decide on a theme, get a team together and make sure your application form is in as soon as possible because we can only take the first 80 entries for floats."

Those interested can contact Elaine at procession@weymouthcarnival.co.uk if they need any advice about bringing their procession entry ideas to life.

Carnival entries already in for this year's procession include floats from Toymaster, The Fun Train for BBC Children in Need and The Nothe Fort.

There will also be the popular Thomas the Tank Engine and friends from Active Mobility and entries from cheerleaders, majorettes and youth sports clubs.

An exciting new addition to this year's procession is the Rampage Carnival Club, an international award-winning band that will bring vibrant colour and exuberant performance to the event.

Entry forms can be found online at www.weymouthcarnival.co.uk under the downloads tab, at the Party Shop on Abbotsbury Road and at Londis near the King's Statue.

World record breaker

■ DAVE Evans with his official Guinness world record certificate

THIS is the first public view of the Guinness world record certificate awarded to Weymouth's master jigsaw maker Dave Evans.

The internationally respected record adjudicator recently recognised Dave's giant Queen's Diamond Jubilee jigsaw hand cut at Weymouth's Brewers Quay as a Guinness world record.

Now Guinness has officially confirmed its decision with this certificate which Dave is shown here displaying for the first time.

He said: "This certificate says it all. It confirms my record and it is a very proud moment for me."

Dave's gigantic 40,763-piece puzzle contained 33 picture panels of Jubilee scenes, construction being watched by a huge global audience from Canada to Korea.

Even its collapse couldn't stop Dave, friends and helpers rallying round to rebuild his creation.

The jigsaw is now on display in the ballroom at the Queen's summer residence in Sandringham where it will stay until the end of September during which time the Queen is expected to view it.

The main jigsaw will be auctioned off for the Help for Heroes charity.

Young musical star heads for Manchester stage

■ ADRIAN Bevan

A WEYMOUTH student is heading for stardom after winning an appearance in a major show with The Company in Manchester.

Adrian Bevan, 17, from Wyke Regis, will be appearing in How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, a musical and satirical look at cut-throat corporate life and office politics, at The Lowry, BBC Media City on August 8th-10th.

He is a member of WOW Youth Musical Theatre where he performs regularly, most recently playing Chris in Miss Saigon.

Adrian, who is currently studying for A levels with a view to taking a music degree said: "I'm very excited to be taking part in such a professional show in such a big professional theatre."

"The crew and cast are all extremely talented and I'm very excited to be working with so many professionals."

"I was so lucky to get the opportunity and cannot wait to start working on the show."

"It's going to be such an incredible experience and insight into the professional world of musical theatre."

"I've been cast as Mr Benjamin

Burton Daniel Ovington, prospective head of the advertising department. He gets dramatically fired and I then switch roles to a chorus 'business' man for the rest of the show to take part in all the chorus songs and dance routines."

Adrian had a hard road to success. Workshop auditions were held in Birmingham, Manchester and London at the beginning of 2013 to find the very best young UK performers.

Recalls followed and, for those who made it through, there was a residential casting weekend.

The Christian Column

AS I SEE IT ... by Geoff Treleven

Our birthmarks

BEING born is a traumatic experience and sometimes leaves scars known as birthmarks.

These are coloured marks on the body which are there from birth and remain for all of our lives. Where these are noticeable, they can be easily explained.

A church minister I knew once did a series of Bible studies which he based on the title: "Things that accompany salvation."

In other words, he was listing things that become visible in our lives when we become Christians. These are evidences of our spiritual birth and explainable from scripture. For example: "No-one who is born of God will continue to sin..." (1 John 3:9)

One of my favourite stories dates back many years to the time of what was known as "The Welsh Revivals."

Many people were turning to Christ in repentance, resulting in changed lives. These included coal miners of whom it was said that their pit ponies no longer obeyed them. The ponies only understood profane language and the miners had stopped swearing.

I think this is an excellent example of how spiritual birthmarks are very evident to all.

Of course, if we have never experienced such a birth, there are no visible marks to prove it.

All the fun of the summer fair

by Harry Walton

A WIDE range of events, attractions and stalls entertained crowds when Weymouth's Conifers Primary School held its annual summer fair.

There was dancing from the Mercury Dance Academy, taekwondo displays led by Rob McDonald and more displays by the Second Edition Majorettes.

A barbecue proved very popular as did a cake clock, various tombolas and sweet stalls, a bouncy castle, face painting, splat-the-rat, beat-the-goalie and other children's events.

The fair was organised by the Friends of Conifers whose secretary Liz Williams said: "All proceeds will go towards helping to fund school trips, residential visits and school equipment such as goalposts."

"We also have a children's Christmas party and funds from the fair will help ensure that each child there gets a book."

Dogs get their tails wagging for family fun day

WEYMOUTH'S sixth Town Green Companion Dog Show and Family Fun Day will be held at the Marsh on Sunday, July 14th from 11am-4pm.

The event, which is run by the Society for the Protection of Markham and Little Francis, will be opened by UK bobsleigh star Serita Shone who lives close to Markham and who will be judging some of the companion dog classes.

Organiser Mary Larkin said: "We're really pleased that Serita has agreed to come and take part at our event."

"This year, as well as all our dog classes, we're putting more emphasis on children's entertainment with a new Town Green-themed fancy dress competition for kids under 12-years-old that will be judged by Mrs Moore from Howleys Toymaster who are donating the prizes. There will also be stalls and many other displays.

"For dogs we also have something new as we will be holding two qualifying heats for Martin Clunes' Buckham Fair which is really exciting. This is held at just a few dog shows and will result in the winners having the chance to take part in the Best Rescue and Re-home Championship at the fair held on Martin Clunes Land at Beaminster in August."

"We also have the old favourites including the fastest sausage eater, waggiest tail and more and our pedigree section that was so successful last year. We're looking forward to a really good day."

The society, which is a registered charity, is continuing its fight to maintain the Town Green status of Markham and Little Francis.

This has been the subject of a number of court hearings and is now due to be heard in the supreme court next year.

Betterment Properties, which owns the land, is applying through the courts to have the registration removed which will at the same time remove restrictions on its use and may leave it open to development.

Money from the show will be used towards this case.

Surgery session to find out how DCA can help

GROUPS are being offered a chance to find out how they can be helped by Dorset Community Action (DCA).

A surgery session is to be held where groups will be able to sit down with a member of DCA staff to discuss their needs and find out what support is available to them.

DCA is able to help groups with a variety of topics ranging from setting up a new group to understanding the roles of trustees and funding projects.

The surgery will be held at the ICA offices in Easton, Portland, from 2pm-4.30pm on Wednesday, July 17th.

For details or to book a surgery appointment, call Rachelle Smith on 01305 216411 or email rachelle.smith@dorsetcommunityaction.org.uk.

Fish and chip shop holds raffle for cancer charities

ALF'S Fish and Chip Shop at Fiveways, Weymouth, is running a major raffle in aid of prostate cancer charities.

Owners John and Karen Pearce will be continuing their Jurassic Coast Holiday Raffle until August 31st.

John said: "Among our prizes is a holiday for four at the five-star Cove Park, Portland, a champagne boat trip for two, a chance to go sea fishing with firefighters and £50 for holiday spends."

"All proceeds will be shared between Prostate Cancer UK and the South Dorset Prostate Cancer Support Group."

"The raffle will be drawn live on Wessex FM on August 31st."

"So far we have raised more than £700, so anyone who would like to boost that with donations can bring them in to our shop."

Pupils get the tour de France

STUDENTS at specialist school Wyvern Academy in Weymouth experienced a taste of continental life when they held a special French week.

The aim was to allow every student at the school to experience what life and culture was like in France.

The Academy's head of primary, Kelly Stinton, planned the event and said: "We aimed to make it like living in France. Each day started with a traditional French breakfast followed by a variety of activities to give students an idea of how life on the other side of the Channel contrasts with our own."

"Our staff were supported throughout the week by the PE department at Wey Valley School with whom we have a fantastic working partnership."

Wyvern Academy is a specialist school for cognition and learning, providing highly individualised education for up to 86 pupils aged two - 19 years with complex learning difficulties.

The activities planned for French Week were specially devised to enable each student to participate at his or her own level and to derive maximum enjoyment from the experience.

The highlight of the first day was an afternoon Tour de France which included pupils circuiting the school field on a variety of wheels - bicycles, trikes, tandems, wheelchairs and buggies. Their route was dotted with images of sights seen on the traditional Tour de France.

Special workshops took place all week, giving students an opportunity to develop new skills in French-themed dance, cookery and language. Parents were also invited to spend a morning at the Academy to listen to French songs and music, watch a performance of the dances developed during the week and sample cuisine prepared by students. A students-only afternoon rounded off activities with a review of the week in picture and song.

Other highlights included a visit from accordion player, Nigel Lawrence, performing French music, a French-themed sports day and sensory story workshops.

Academy head Sue Hoxey said: "The students were very excited about French week and enjoyed trying all the new experiences. As well as the special workshop and events, a French theme was incorporated into their other lessons such as history and. It was quite an experience!"

Fire station to open its doors

WEYMOUTH Fire Station will be holding an open day this Saturday (13th July) between 10am and 4pm, providing a fun and informative event for all the family.

Local residents have the opportunity to meet their local fire crews and see some of the methods they use to save lives everyday. The event will include displays of fire fighting actions such as a chip pan fire, the DFRS Technical Rescue team and a road traffic collision demonstration. There will be the opportunity to have a look around the appliances, sign up for a free home safety check and find out what crews at the station get up to a daily basis.

The Weymouth Community Safety Centre, run by SafeWise, will also be open during the event. The public will be able to join in with arts and crafts, watch zumba demonstrations; children can have their face painted and much more. FireWise tours will be running throughout the day, where families can learn about the devastating effect of fire on their home and how to prevent it.

Weymouth Station Commander, Clem Stanley said: "We're hoping for a really good turnout this year as we have so much going on at the station - it will be a really great weekend day out for all the family. This open day is a great opportunity for residents to come and meet their local fire crew, learn how to protect their homes from fire, and see what activities and incidents we get involved with".

Firefighters will be on hand to talk about recruitment, fire safety and arrange home fire safety visits where necessary. Home safety visits provide advice about cooking and electrical safety, escape plans, and free smoke alarm checks.

Entrance to the event is free. Weymouth Fire Station can be found on Radipole Lane, Weymouth. All funds raised on the day will go towards SafeWise and the Firefighters Charity.

Invite to view Weymouth Way cycle plans

RESIDENTS are being invited along to a public viewing of major pedestrian and cycle improvements planned for Weymouth.

The Weymouth Way shared use cycleway and footway between Chafeys Roundabout and Manor Roundabout will create a vital link for work and leisure.

The preferred route following public consultation is now at advanced design stage with construction of the project planned for Autumn 2013.

Among key features that the scheme will deliver are a walking and cycling route from Chafeys Roundabout to Manor Roundabout and provision of a crossing signal facility to the north of Chafeys Roundabout.

Crossing facilities will also be provided on Weymouth Way between Chafeys Roundabout and Westham Crossroads.

People can view the plans on Thursday, July 18th at Emmanuel Church, Southill, from 2pm-7pm when Dorset Highways staff will be on hand to answer any questions they may have about the planned route.

Tale of life in a northern pub performed at Royal Manor Theatre

PORTLAND'S Royal Manor Theatre is to stage a play called "Two" by Jim Cartwright starring Jo Cheverton and Mark Sampson-Vincent.

The play presents a view of working class life in a northern pub in the 80s.

Its main characters the landlord and landlady interlace a variety of characters, each affected by another whether the audience sees that other person or not. Their facade ultimately cracks and they are forced to face up to their past.

The production is being directed by Sally Laming and will run from Tuesday, August 20th to Saturday August 24th with the play starting at 7.30pm.

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

How many workmen does it take to fill a pot hole?

GOVERNMENT plans to radically change the GCSE structure are common knowledge but do Ministers know I have uncovered the answer to an age old GCSE-style question?

Generations of schoolchildren have wracked their brains over "If it takes two men an hour to dig a hole, how long will it take one man?" or a version thereof.

Well, quite by chance, I found the answer in Weymouth to a very similar question, "How many workmen does it take to fill in one pothole?"

The answer seems to owe a lot to pi, the famous mathematical problem of dividing 22 by seven which cannot be solved because calculations go on forever.

Residents told me they became increasingly fascinated watching one pothole being filled in and said they were stunned to see first two, then three, four, five and even six workmen tackle the problem, adding that they never realised the essentially simple task of filling in a hole was so complex.

First there came the briefing. This involved one man without a shovel pointing out the hole to four men with shovels in case they'd missed it.

All five then stood around for a while until a sixth man with a drop-sided lorry turned up at which point the exhausted group took a tea break.

Suitably fortified, repair operations began with the original five pointing out the hole to the driver who promptly shook his head and drove off, presumably concerned in case his vehicle fell into the hole or he was actually asked to do some work.

The remaining five then held a brains trust meeting amid drifting clouds of tobacco smoke after which the gaffer got on his mobile phone and made a call. They all then stood about for ten minutes until the driver came back at which point one man lifted a pick axe off the back of the lorry.

He then attacked the area around the hole with gusto urged on by gestures and comments from his colleagues until he tired and stepped back.

There was then something of a scrum as one, two and even three workmen at a time attempted to dig out and remove the hard-core and earth he'd chopped into the hole.

By now it was nearly lunchtime so, with a small though now very nice oblong hole to show as reward for their labours, everyone knocked off for lunch, taking the lids off suitcase-sized sandwich boxes and unscrewing Thermos flasks.

Residents darted into their kitchens, threw together a bite to eat and hastily boiled a kettle for a cup of tea, keen not to miss the afternoon saga.

This began with the gaffer stretching and then wincing at some lower back pain before urging his troops to one last effort.

A tar patch was slowly raked into position over the next hour or so, three of the men then leaning on their shovels for a much needed fag while another man tamped the patch down.

Ten minutes of careful scrutiny to ensure they couldn't spin the job out any more and they wearily grabbed their tools, climbed into the lorry and drove off to sarcastic applause from residents.

So teachers, as you prepare your pupils for their GCSE Maths exam, remember that the answer to the workmen question.....is that there isn't an answer! It could take any length of time and involve any amount of workmen.

Wheel meet again...

VETERANS recently poured into Weymouth for the annual Armed Forces Day event and it proved once and for all that you are never too old to misbehave.

One veteran proudly displayed his medals but needed a mobility scooter to help him get around.

Pedestrians were duly respectful, many stopping to ask how he was, and it didn't take the wily fox long to realise he was on to a winner.

So, as several women came past him he piped up: "Get your rides here! Only 50 pence but you've got to sit on the front!"

There was much laughter at this including one wag who began to sing "Wheel meet again, don't know where.....!"

Who would want a holiday in the sun?

THIS gem was broadcast loudly by one couple as they walked along Weymouth Esplanade on a gloomy day with wind gusts blowing sand in their faces.

The man said: "I love it here. We've saved a fortune by not going to Tenerife."

His wife gave him a daggers look and replied: "Yes. I had thought I'd miss sunshine, getting a tan, and being warm.....and I do!"

The man then laughed but it didn't look from his wife's expression that she'd told a joke!

Fundraisers' adventure has come to the end of the road

A ROAD trip to end all road trips is finally over after the Windy 500 motorists completed 23 countries in 23 days to raise nearly £17,000 for Julia's House and other charities.

Organiser Steve Blackmore contacted the View From Belgium to say that the trip, which pulled away from Weymouth Football Club last month, had been so successful and people had enjoyed themselves so much that everyone wanted to do it all again in 2015.

He added: "It's been a memorable trip for sure. In this last week we have left Dubrovnik and traveled up through Croatia, then in to Slovenia where we visited Predjama Castle.

"From there we took in Venice then some of the Italian Lakes.

"In Switzerland we found more snow, going on to pass through Liechtenstein and Austria before taking in the practice session of the German Grand Prix at Nurburgring.

■ STEVE Blackmore at Predjama Castle in Slovakia

"Then we passed through Luxembourg which was the 23rd country, thus completing the challenge."

The group went on to Belgium, visiting Ypres before spending their final night in Dunkirk.

Steve said: "It has been an amazing trip. We have raised close to £17,000 for several charities, mainly Julia's House.

"As for highlights, I asked four people and got nine answers. The stunning scenery and the friendly people of Albania figured high in many people's lists.

"Those who came mainly for the driving raved about the Transfagarasan Highway and the Stelvio Pass. Prague at night was beautiful, Slovakia was also amazing for its natural scenery.

"Personally, I'd go for our wild night of camping at the top of the Transfagarasan Highway in Romania. There was a huge sense of elation at getting up there in the first place, a good party atmosphere around the camp fire and a wild thunderstorm that night.

"I think, having spoken to the teams, just about every single one is looking forward to doing it all again in 2015, so I had better start the planning soon.

"If anyone else fancies joining us for about 15 days in June 2015, I'll be taking expressions of interest before the official launch in a month or so on spooky388@hotmail.com"

Cyclists complete charity ride in memory of friend

CYCLISTS have tackled 140 miles of Dorset roads in aid of the British Heart Foundation in memory of a colleague who was just 38 when she died unexpectedly.

Charlie McCaig, 52, who works with the Dorset Drug Intervention Programme, led the ride with Emma Peaple of the Community Alcohol and Drug Advisory Service and John Fellows of CADAS East.

They set off from Portland Bill and rode along the coast road, climbing Abbotsbury Hill towards Bridport and on to Beaminster, Shaftsbury, Christchurch, Bournemouth, Poole, Wareham and back to finish at the CADAS office at Weymouth Community Hospital.

The ride included a total ascent of 4,056ft and was completed in a single day.

Participants ranged from workers from all the local drug services, criminal justice services and people that Lisa had inspired.

Among those who joined in along the way were people ranging from other CADAS workers, EDP, Police, PCC office, PHE and other people who wanted to support the charity effort.

Charlie said: "Myself, friends and colleagues completed this charity bike ride for a special friend, Lisa Hughes, who sadly passed away unexpectedly last September aged 38.

"Lisa was a lady who could not do enough for everyone making us all feel special and listened too. She was always willing to talk and listen to me irrespective of the demands she had in work or personally. I feel lucky to have known this lady and feel privileged to call her a friend."

Sherborne Turf

FROM our location in the picturesque village of Trent, Sherborne Turf has been supplying the gardeners of Dorset, Somerset, Hampshire and Wiltshire with quality lawn turf and garden products for over 35 years. Our turf is grown in high quality farmland which forms part of The Trent Estate, using a unique blend of grasses that will knit together to form a firm base, negating the need for potentially harmful netting that could pose a trip hazard and be costly to remove.

Supplying the local area with fresh turf cut to order, low 'turf miles' mean our grass is green in more ways than one!

At Sherborne Turf, our product range has expanded to meet the needs of our customers. Garden soils are stored under cover in winter ready for delivery in bulk bags, along with a variety of top dressing, bark, mulch and compost for the serious gardener.

Deliveries are made using our own fleet of vehicles and drivers experienced in the handling of turf and associated products. While the trade standard for deliveries is 'kerb-side', our drivers understand this is not always practical for your gardens, and so we will always endeavour to place your items as conveniently as possible for you, subject to suitable access.

All of the staff at Sherborne Turf have experience of the items we sell, so for assistance on any aspect of your garden project, please give us a call on 01935 850388. Office hours are 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday, and Saturday mornings during busy periods.

Hospital radio programme reaches milestone broadcast

■ KIERAN Williams interviewing the former Carnival Chairman Mark Alwood

■ VOLUNTEERS are Ridgeway Radio marking Red Nose Day

DORSET County Hospital's volunteer-run Ridgeway Radio has celebrated a milestone with the 100th edition of the nostalgia programme Turn Up The Wireless.

The programme is on air between 2.45pm and 4pm, presented by Heather Foster and Brian Wills. Brian plays music from past decades, most of which would have been on Pick of The Pops; there's a Glenn Miller lost recordings slot; features on vintage comedy, radio portraits of broadcasters of the past and much more.

The programme is just one of many which the station produces with its dedicated band of volunteers and a history stretching back more than 45 years.

Ridgeway Radio is the successor to several other hospital stations in the area which all began back in September 1966 as the Dorchester Hospital Broadcasting Society.

The station is run by a team of volunteers who include presenters, ward visitors and technicians. Some of these are new to broadcasting, but some have been involved since the early days of local hospital radio in the area.

by Trevor Bevins
trevorbevins@gmail.com

Formerly West Dorset Hospital Radio, the Station's name now reflects the amalgamation of main hospital services of Weymouth and Dorchester Hospitals, following completion of phase two of the present hospital, "Ridgeway" being the name of the hill between the two towns.

When the main departments moved from Weymouth and District Hospital to the new Dorset County Hospital, Radio Shambles - the long-running and much-loved hospital radio service in Weymouth - closed and donated its equipment and record library to Ridgeway Radio, along with many of its members.

The existing Ridgeway Radio is now an amalgamation of four former stations - including another local service at Herrison Hospital, for psychiatric patients, now also redeveloped.

"Our aim is to entertain the patient with friendly chat with record requests from their relatives and friends and provide a link to the outside world through items of local goings-on and live Outside Broadcasts," said Peter Foster from the station.

In addition to studio-based programmes from the hospital the team produce regular outside broadcasts, include the Dorchester Fun Run, Dorchester Carnival and Dorchester Agricultural Show.

Notable amongst these has been the visit of Her Majesty The Queen who officially opened phase two in 1998, thus completing a task begun by HRH Prince Charles who had opened phase one some years earlier.

Patients can hear Ridgeway Radio on the default radio channel of the Hospedia, the bedside media system on channel one, and can phone the studio directly on *800.

All radio is free but, in order to listen, patients need to register with Hospedia first using the telephone on the bedside entertainment unit and giving their name and postcode. This is a quick and simple process.

Record Requests for programmes can be made by phone on 01305 254227 or via the station's own website: ridgewayradio.org.uk.

See page 27 for a full Ridgeway Radio programme schedule

Safe house for abused women opens in Weymouth

by Harry Walton
hds Walton@yahoo.co.uk

FIVE families can now be offered a new life after The Hamlet was opened in Weymouth.

The secret site offers women who have suffered domestic abuse a half way house after initial help at West Dorset Women's Refuge (WDR) in Dorchester, but before they return to independent life.

The Hamlet helps them along that road by providing five flats for women and any children they may have so they can take their next step towards independence.

This facility has been made possible by joint working between Raglan Housing, Magna Housing Group, which provided the site, and Weymouth and Portland council which is providing £14,000 annual funding to run it.

Raglan will manage the facility and the support workers will be the same as those at the WDR, giving continuity of care support to the women living there.

Pauline Collier, who manages both sites, said: "For a number of years at the West Dorset Women's Refuge we have wanted some form of follow on accommodation to help women gain more independence before finding a permanent home of their own.

"By working with the Friends of Weymouth Refuge, which had been campaigning since 2010 for the refuge in Weymouth to be reinstated, and Magna Housing Group, we have been able to develop five much needed flats.

"More support is also provided through fundraising and other efforts by the Friends, now known as the Friends of the Hamlet.

"The Hamlet will help five women become more independent but still with some support from WDR which houses about 40 such women per year at Dorchester.

"Sadly we have to turn away about 250 women, so these new flats are pretty vital to help us free up space

■ WEYMOUTH and Portland Mayor and Mayoress, Councillors Ray Banham and Pam Nixon open The Hamlet

at the refuge in Dorchester."

Helping open the refuge was Weymouth and Portland Mayor and Mayoress, Councillors Ray Banham and Pam Nixon.

Mr Banham said: "This is a very important facility and the council is providing £14,000 per year to support it.

"This will help ensure that The Hamlet can continue with its vital work, helping women to move forward with their lives."

Making travelling around Dorset easy

DORSET County Council have launched TravelDorset, an easy-to-use online tool helping you find out everything you need to know about getting from A to B, whether it's by road, bus, train, bike or on foot.

Available at www.dorsetforyou.com/traveldorset, the web pages bring together information to help you plan your journey, whatever mode of transport you're using.

The county council say the site has live travel alerts to see where there are issues on the roads which might affect your route. You can also find out when your next bus is due, look at train times and access interactive cycle maps to plan your two-wheeled travel.

The information is easy to read on mobile devices like smartphones and tablets so you can access it wherever you are.

Funding for Ridgeway project

PEOPLE living in West Dorset, Weymouth and Portland will be better able to enjoy, learn about and care for the surrounding countryside thanks to a grant of nearly £2million from the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF).

The South Dorset Ridgeway Landscape Partnership, made up of 14 local organisations led by the Dorset Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), is to deliver a range of activity over the next five years including support for landowners to help wildlife, such as butterflies and Grey Partridge; create better access to the high ground of the Ridgeway so that more people can enjoy the views; an exciting events programme including 'Inside Out Dorset' in 2014; help for schools to use the landscape as an 'outside classroom'; cutting edge digital media projects to fire the imagination and breathing life back into local song and traditional crafts.

Andy Foot, Chairman of the Dorset AONB Partnership and local farmer, said: "This landscape has been shaped by people that have lived and farmed here for 6,000 years. The challenge for us is how we will shape it for the future. The South Dorset Ridgeway Landscape Partnership Scheme provides abundant opportunities for the people who live and work here to enjoy this landscape, feel pride in it and make their own contribution to ensure this place retains its special character in a changing, modern world."

The first opportunities to get involved will start later this summer, to find out more visit South Dorset Ridgeway Partnership website, Twitter:@LandBone-Stones.

Dorset Regiment Association leads Menin Gate ceremony in Belgium

Fifty six members of the Dorset Regiment Association have returned from Belgium on a tour of First World War battlefields in memory of the Dorsetshire men who fought and died there.

The highlight of the trip for the group was to take the lead at the daily Last Post Ceremony at the Menin Gate.

Curator of the Keep Military Museum Capt (Retd) Colin Parr MBE, said: "Standards from Dorchester, Weymouth, Sherborne, Bridport, Blandford, Gillingham, Bournemouth and Poole and London were all present - led by the Standard of The Rifles Association in Dorset.

"There were more than 800 people at the remembrance - numbers reflected most evenings at this moving ceremony. People from all nations were present - our old soldiers were approached by people from Canada and Australia as well as many from European countries."

During the week-long tour the group travelled around the salient from Nieuwpoort in the north to Passchendaele, Zillebeke (Hill 60), Messines and Ploegsteert (Plug street Wood).

"The objective was to visit some of the places that Dorsetshire men fought during the Great War. Many lost their lives in battles all over the salient some killed in action, many wounded some dying of wounds, and of course many returning home after the war." said Captain Parr.

"The Keep Military Museum organised the trip and special thanks go to Major (Retd) Nick Speakman. Nick is a lead volunteer at the museum. The museum is keen to encourage more volunteers to help in a number of areas. It could be for a day, a morning or an afternoon a week, everything helps in the lead up to the Great War Centenary" he added.

In addition the Keep is very keen to hear from families whose ancestors served in the Dorsets, the Devons, The Dorset Yeomanry or the 52nd Siege Battery, Royal Garrison Artillery during the Great War and those women who worked in the hospitals in Europe and at home. Where possible the museum would like to commemorate some of these men and women during the centenary.

If you are interested then please contact Capt Colin Parr on 01305 264066 or by email on info@keepmilitarymuseum.org Alternatively you can visit the Keep and ask for him at reception.

Kitson & Trotman

KITSON & Trotman Solicitors give some guidance on what to do in the first five days following the death of a friend or relative.

In many cases the hospital or GP involved will help you with these early steps:

- Contact the funeral director.
- Contact family and friends.
- Register the death at a register office.
- Locate the late Will - the deceased's solicitor may have a copy.
- Begin funeral arrangements - you will need to check the Will for any special requests.

The date of the funeral cannot be finalised until after the death has been registered and if the death has to be reported to the Coroner, the date when the funeral can be held will be affected.

Information needed for Registration of the death:

- Name and address of the deceased.
- National Insurance Number.
- Date of death.
- Places of birth.
- Place of death.
- Occupation.
- Maiden name.
- List of pension and benefits from public funds.
- Name of birth of surviving spouse.
- Date of birth of surviving spouse.
- Occupation of surviving spouse.
- Deceased spouse name.
- Deceased spouse date of death.

GRIEF is quite common and is the normal internal feeling one experiences in reaction to a loss, while bereavement is the state of having experienced that loss.

The potential negative effects of a grief reaction can be significant and are often aggravated by grief triggers, events that remind the bereaved individual of their loved one, or the circumstances surrounding their loss.

The risk factors for experiencing more serious symptoms of grief for a longer period of time are related to the survivor's own physical and emotional health before the loss, the relationship between the bereaved and their family member or other loved one, as well as related to the nature of the death.

Bereaved individuals who feel the death of their loved one is unexpected may be at greater risk for suffering from major depression, post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), or prolonged grief.

The seven emotional stages of grief are shock or disbelief, denial, bargaining, guilt, anger, depression, and acceptance/hope.

To assess grief, a health caregiver usually asks questions to assess what symptoms the individual is suffering from, then considers whether he or she is suffering from normal grief, prolonged grief, or some other issue.

Coping tips for grieving include the bereaved individual's caring for his or herself through continuing nutritious and regular eating habits, getting extra rest, and communicating with surviving loved ones.

Consulting with solicitors or other legal experts is advisable when either planning for or managing the legal matters associated with a death.

Some of the major legal issues involved with dying include the person's right to have informed consent to receive or refuse treatment, advance directives and making funeral arrangements.

STOKE ABBOTT STREET FAIR

STOKE Abbott's annual Street Fair, on Saturday, July 20th, kicks off in time-honoured tradition with the 'Stoke Abbott Sick Club' parade at 1.45pm. From 2pm, there will be an exciting array of stalls and lots of new attractions for families.

As well as trying their hand at the Slippery Horse, face-painting and other fun stuff in the Childrens Games Garden, kids can get up close and personal with Chippy the Barn Owl and a donkey or two, and 'go for gold' in the novelty dog show, packed with classes just for junior handlers as well as adults.

The popular second hand clothes stall - now run by village resident, Barbara Stewart, who is a former fashion editor - will include a selection of top quality children's clothes for the first time, and the toys stall promises to be bigger and better than ever. There's also ferret racing, for the first time, and a human slot machine.

Live music comes courtesy of the Rex Trevett Big Band - a huge hit last year - and the New Inn garden will play host to a coconut shy, traditional skittles alley and a barbeque plus live music in the bar in the evening.

Set out along the village lanes, other traditional village-run stalls will include cakes, plants, jams, jewellery, 'Granny's Attic', crafts and books. Delicious cream teas will be served throughout the afternoon in the village hall.

Car parking, at a cost of £1, is available on the road into the village from Beaminster with a free shuttle bus service to take visitors up to the New Inn.

Proceeds from this year's fair will go to St Mary's Church, the village hall and the Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

Michael Armstrong and Steve Rodgers both set to perform at the Bridport venue this week

THE 115 Club are over the next couple of weeks showcasing two of the countries finest contemporary artists, both returning to Bridport's only dedicated Music & Dinner Venue by popular demand!

Michael Armstrong, fresh from a European tour, brings his unique take on some of the finest soft rock classics from the 60s right up to today, but to add a twist to the 115 Club's regular format, this gig is taking place on Saturday, July 13th, in the Garden at the 115 Club behind the Bridge House Hotel, accompanied by a BBQ! Taking a step from the usual cellar environment the 115 Club are aiming to take full advantage of the glorious summer weather that has finally graced Bridport!

Secondly, returning to format, Thursday, July 18th, Steve Rodgers will be entertaining yet again in the Cellar of the 115 Club. Offering his fabulous vocals, gentle guitar and soothing tunes to make his second visit to 115 Club equally, we are sure, as his first. Steve is on the brink of releasing his second album and if it is anything like his first it will be full of instant classics, with his vocals lighting up the ambient cellar this can only be one of the finest names to have graced the 115 Club.

Both artists have performed at 115 previously, both to a packed house, with all the charm and wit of seasoned performers they can only be predicted to be sell out gigs of the highest standard.

National Theatre Live presents Macbeth

MANCHESTER International Festival 2013's production of Macbeth will be broadcast to the Electric Palace's big screen on Saturday, July 20th at 8.30pm.

This electrifying new production of Shakespeare's tragic tale of ambition and treachery unfolds within the walls of an intimate deconsecrated Manchester church. Directed by Olivier and Tony award-winning director Rob Ashford and BAFTA award-winner Kenneth Branagh, Macbeth also stars Branagh in the lead role, his first Shakespeare performance in over a decade. Alex Kingston (Doctor Who, ER) stars as Lady Macbeth, in her first stage role in several years since she became a regular guest star on Doctor Who.

Kenneth Branagh has long been lauded as one of the great Shakespearean interpreters. His skills as a writer, director and actor have garnered international acclaim across the disciplines of stage, film and television, and he is the only man to be nominated in five different categories for an Academy Award. He last performed Shakespeare when he played Richard III at the Sheffield Crucible in 2002. Recent stage performances as Edmund at the National Theatre and Ivanov for the Donmar played to great acclaim. In 2011 he completed a sell-out run of the hit comedy The Painkiller at the Lyric Theatre in his home city of Belfast.

Appealing to a wide audience and age group this highly energetic production's very short run at Manchester International Festival sold out quickly so be sure to book in advance to see Macbeth the broadcast of at the Electric Palace. Tickets are £10 plus booking fee, available from Bridport tourist information centre: 01308 424901 and online at seetickets.com, or £12 on the door (if available).

ENERGISE

Stay fit and healthy in West Dorset

Over a twelve week period Energise will track the progress of Rob's personal fitness training at Bridport Leisure Centre.

Rob - Week 5

DURING the last 5 weeks, Rob's training routine has changed dramatically. Originally Rob was training for 90 minutes, 3 times a week and focusing on long periods of low intensity cardiovascular exercise such as the bike, cross trainer or treadmill. Although this burnt calories, this was only while Rob was exercising and wasn't keeping Rob's metabolism raised after his workout.

Rob's exercise routine has now completely changed to ensure he trains for 45 minutes, 5 times a week. Rob's workout sessions are now shorter and the intensity of his workouts has increased. Rob is also now focusing on resistance training the benefits as the benefits of this type of training are:

1. Improved muscle strength and tone
2. Increased metabolism (burning more calories when at rest)
3. Reduced body fat
4. Weight management
5. Prevention and control of health conditions such as diabetes, heart disease and arthritis
6. Increased self-esteem

Trainer Tip

If you cannot make it to the gym, you can replicate the above routine at home by walking for a warm up and cool down and using filled water bottles as weights. If you would like a personal resistance circuit designed, simply visit Bridport Leisure Centre and one of our personal trainers will design a bespoke routine for you.

We are currently focusing on circuit training with Rob as this keeps his heart rate elevated while working Rob's muscles at the same time. Circuit training is a selection of exercises followed back to back without any rest.

Here is an example of Rob's session:

- 10 minute warm up
- 15 Press ups
- 15 Burpees
- 20 Lunges with weights
- 15 Pulls up (assisted)
- 15 Squat curl and Press
- 15 Bent over rows
- 15 Jumping squats
- Rest for 1 minute and repeat 3 times
- 10 minute cool down

Peter Wiles developed his photography work professionally after moving to Lyme Regis 10 years ago. The annual Lyme Regis ArtsFest, which started in 2003, provided an important impetus to develop and show his work. Much of Peter's photography is community-based, documenting the town, its people and events and providing images for local organisations. Special projects include a series on Lyme Regis people in their work places and also documenting the coastal protection work that took place in Lyme Regis between 2004 and 2007. In contrast to his Lyme Regis-based work, Peter also enjoys other visual challenges including urban and theatre photography. His earlier international humanitarian and development work is also a source of archive images. Peter is currently documenting the joint Lyme Regis ArtsFest / Museum re:collection project which is supported by funding from Arts Council England. His website is at www.lymescapes.co.uk

The Competition Winner will receive £200, Second Prize - £100.00. There will also be a People's Choice Prize of a £50 Voucher for the Mariners Hotel, Lyme Regis, for the artist whose work is most voted for throughout the course of the Exhibition.

The prize winners will be announced at the opening of the exhibition - 12 noon on Saturday 27th July 2013 at the Town Mill Malthouse.

Further information and entry forms are available on the Town Mill website www.townmill.org.uk or by contacting Mags Osborn at The Town Mill on 01297 443579. ENTRY FORM SUBMISSION DEADLINE EXTENDED TO 12TH JULY 2013

Chideock Manor Summer Reception – tickets on sale now

AS part of the fundraising campaign to save Bridport Literary and Scientific Institute (the old library), Howard and Deirdre Coates are kindly opening the garden of Chideock Manor for a summer reception on Saturday 20 July from 5.30 – 8.00pm.

The garden, which has been featured in Country Life, has been totally restored and replanted since 1996, and is divided into a number of distinct areas. In front of the house is a formal broad grass terrace with fine views of the lake and hills. There are informal woodland and stream gardens, and the old walled garden is lined with productive cider apples and formal box-hedged vegetable beds. Guests will be able to stroll around the informal contemporary garden, croquet lawn, along the Yew Walk and Lime Walk and through colourful rose and clematis arches.

As part of the evening's entertainment a short talk will be given by Dr Tim Connor. Dr Connor retired to Powerstock from Eton College, where he was Head of History and taught history of art. He has a particular interest in the architecture of churches and local historic buildings, including the much loved Bridport Literary and Scientific Institute.

There will also be music and wine and refreshments will be available. Tickets cost £20 and all profits will go towards the campaign to save Bridport Literary and Scientific Institute. To purchase tickets please contact

Wonderful selection of Genuine French produce at the French Food and Craft Market in Beaminster

LE MARCHE de France has been invited to return to Beaminster in October, and bring a great range of high quality and fresh produce from all regions of France for one day for everyone to enjoy.

There will be a magnificent cheese stall with a truly enormous selection of French cheeses. Bread will be baked on-site, in front of visitors, on the new bread and patisserie stall and the smell of bread, croissants and patisseries should hopefully spread in the whole town centre. There will also be the Charcuterie with wonderful sausages, olives, Turkish delights, smoked ham and Calvados pate. Pure Butter Home-made biscuits, cakes and Ginger bread, Mustards, sauces and, of course, garlic will be on offer as well! For those with a sweet tooth, wonderful natural honeys as well the hugely popular crepes stall will be on display. If you still have a small space left after all that, the sweet stall will also be making fresh pralines, almonds and cashews on site.

And for those who like South of France, they will find soaps from Marseille, lavenders, tablecloths from Provence... Oh, La la!

The market will take place in Market Square, Beaminster on Friday, July 12th from 9-4pm.

LYME REGIS - £625,000

SITUATED in an elevated position above the town this contemporary styled three bedroom house boasts stunning panoramic views of Lyme Bay and along the West Dorset coastline. Coram Court is an exclusive development situated in an elevated position on the western side of Lyme Regis accessible to the town and harbour. The house is ideally suited as an impressive principle residence, holiday home or has excellent letting potential. The accommodation is arranged over two floors with the kitchen, spacious dining room, two double bedrooms and a shower room on the ground floor while the living room and master en suite bedroom on the first floor making the most of the superb views.

Lyme Regis is famed for its many historic connections and character buildings, and of course, for its well-known Cobb Harbour. As a resort, it is considered quite unspoilt, but has most of the shops and amenities that one could require, in addition to which there are numerous leisure activities including both sailing and power boat clubs, a cliff top golf course and a bowling club. The whole coastline with Lyme Regis and Charmouth at its centre has recently been designated a World Heritage Site and is commonly known as the Jurassic Coast. It lies approximately 5 miles from the market town of Axminster, with its main line railway connections to Waterloo (Approx. 2 3/4 hours). The market town of Bridport is approximately 7 miles distant, with Taunton and Exeter within a radius of about 30 miles with access to the M5 motorway. The county town of Dorchester is within a similar distance.

A viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all this property has to offer. Please call Fortnam Smith & Banwell Estate Agents on 01297 - 445666 to arrange a viewing.

Absolutely charming Grade II Listed two/three bedroom cottage

THIS absolutely charming Grade II Listed two/three bedroom cottage with heaps of character is situated in a semi rural position on the edge of Musbury village within a short walk of the local shop, post office and pub.

The property has a pretty south west facing garden with beautiful countryside views.

There are two good sized bedrooms on the first floor (one currently partitioned to form a small study area) and the ground floor space is considerably larger having been extended. The living room is spacious (with low beamed ceiling), has a lovely stone fireplace fitted with a wood burning stove, and a turning stair case beside leading to the first floor. The kitchen has a curved wall to one side, with room for dining and good views to the back over the adjoining fields. A door from here leads to a small lobby with doors to the attractively re-fitted bathroom and the dining/utility room. From here a door leads to yet another room which is a large entrance lobby/boot room. The cottage is warm and inviting with lovely wooden doors and interesting features everywhere. It is an ideal property for anyone looking for character and charm and would make an inviting holiday or permanent home.

This charming property is on the market for £229,9550.

Broadwindsor success for Symonds and Sampson

JEREMY Smith of Symonds & Sampson in Beaminster is delighted to be able to report heavy property sales in the popular Dorset village of Broadwindsor. Jeremy commented "Broadwindsor has always proved to be a popular village, but the recent opening of its excellent community store has not only raised its profile, but also in my view made the village more desirable and therefore lead to increased property sales". Recent sales agreed 14 Redlands Lane which is a two bedroom semi-detached house, 16 Redlands Lane which was a four bedroom detached house, and 20 Redlands Lane which is a four bedroom terraced home. We have also sold a find bungalow in Orchard Mead, a very desirable three bedroom end of terrace home called Blackbird Cottage and most interesting Yew Tree Cottage which was a four bedroom terrace home which had been on the market with one of our competitors for a significant period of time, but we managed to agree a sale in just over a weeks marketing. Obviously selling these properties quickly does leave a dent in our property portfolio, if you are considering either in Redlands Lane, Orchard Mead, Yarn Barton, etc, or have a three or four bedroom cottage which you wish to sell, why not contact myself or any of my sales colleagues Erica, Kate, Jane or Denise on 01308 863100 and book your fee market appraisal.

All new 4x4 model joins the Swift range

- Available with 1.2-litre petrol engine and five doors in either SZ3 or SZ4 grades
- Fully automatic and permanent 4WD system
- Just 65kg heavier than an equivalent 2WD model
- CO2 emissions of 126g/km
- Available with VAT free until September 30th

SUZUKI has a strong global heritage for its 4WD models and now, following sales success in Japan as well as several European Countries including Germany and Switzerland, Suzuki is launching the 4x4 Swift in the UK and it goes on sale this month.

Swift 4x4 will be available as a five door 1.2 petrol model with manual transmission and equipped as either an SZ3 or SZ4 grade.

Apart from 4x4 badging and a slightly increased body ride height of 25mm the SZ3 grade appears identical to an equivalent SZ3 five door. The SZ4 model has a more rugged appearance and offers extra protection over rough ground by adding front and rear skid plates, black wheel arch extensions and black side skirts.

This new model has a proven and simple fully automatic and permanent 4-wheel drive system which transfers additional torque to the rear wheels when required via a viscous coupling, further enhancing the already highly acclaimed cornering ability of the Swift.

It is also an ideal choice for customers living in rural areas needing additional mobility or for crossing slippery surfaces during winter without owning a larger and more conventional SUV sized vehicle.

Thanks to the use of small and light-weight components Swift 4x4 is just 65kg heavier than an equivalent 2WD petrol model and emissions are only 10g/km higher at 126g/km.

Included in Suzuki's recently extended VAT free offers, the 4WD Swift is priced at £11,516 for SZ3 and £13,116 for the higher specified SZ4 model which now includes power folding door mirrors with integral indicators and Daylight Running Lamps as standard equipment.

Seat smashes its half-year sales record in the UK

- SEAT registers 22,752 cars during the first half of 2013 – a new company record
- Record-breaking figure is 18.6% higher than SEAT's previous UK half-year best, in 2012, and beats market growth
- SEAT second quarter sales (April – June) are up by 35% compared to 2012
- Company on course for a fifth consecutive annual sales rise
- SEAT has now exceeded 600,000 UK registrations since entering the market in 1985

SEAT is celebrating an astonishing first half of 2013, with half-year UK sales figures that put the company well on course to smash its yearly sales record.

The 22,752 SEAT cars registered between January and June 2013, according to SMMT figures just published, are a half-year company record. The number eclipses SEAT's previous half-year record, set in 2012, by 18.6%.

In addition, the 4,428 SEAT cars registered in June is a 29% sales jump compared to the company's previous record June, also in 2012.

According to SMMT figures the UK market is buoyant, with June sales up 13.3% and half year sales up 10.2% compared to 2012 – yet SEAT's figures trump both of those.

The sales spike can be attributed in part to the model offensive that SEAT has undertaken since the start of 2012, comprising the introduction of three brand new models – Mii, Toledo and Leon – and significant revisions to the Ibiza, including a new flagship Ibiza Cupra.

SEAT UK Director Neil Williamson said: "Within the last few days we've picked up the coveted Auto Express Car of the Year award for the Leon five-door, launched the stunning Leon SC in the UK, and broken our half-year sales record... we've had worse weeks."

"Between the Mii city car, the staggeringly spacious Toledo, and the all-new Leon family, SEAT now has a model range that's broader and higher quality than ever. That fact, along with an ever-strengthening dealer network, is starting to show in our sales figures.

"And with further expansion of the Leon family due before the year is out, SEAT UK is on course for the best year in its history."

SEAT's 2013 sales to date are spearheaded by the Ibiza family, with 10,198 sold. The new Leon follows it in the sales charts, with 5,096 five-door models sold so far. The remainder of 2013 will see Leon sales augmented with the addition of the three-door SC; once the Leon family is complete, SEAT expects the SC to account for 17% of overall annual Leon sales.

Since 2008, SEAT UK has achieved consistent sales and market share increases, culminating in enjoying its best ever tallies in 2012: 38,798 and 1.9% respectively. In 2012 the company sold around 10,000 more cars than it did in 2008.

Nissan celebrates car and van fleet growth in first six months of 2013

- Fleets bought 29,487 cars from Jan to June, a rise of 4,102 units on 2012
- Nissan fleet car market share now at a record 5.4%
- Nissan LCV fleet market share grows 151% to 4,445 units, a 4.8% market share

NISSAN has reported a very strong fleet performance in the first six months of 2013 with combined car and van sales up by 20% to 33,932 compared with the same period in 2012 (28,329).

Fleets bought 29,487 Nissan cars from January to June 2013, a rise of 4,102 year on year, which represents a record 5.4% market share. Nissan became the sixth largest fleet car brand in the UK and sold the equivalent number of cars as Toyota and Honda combined.

The star performer was Juke which rose 49% to 7,469 units (from 5,023 in 2012) while combined Qashqai sales rose to 16,561, a rise of 2,325 over 2012. Both LEAF and NV200 minibus also experienced sales growth.

Nissan's LCV performance was just as impressive with 4,445 vans bought by fleets in the first six months of 2013, a 51% rise over the same period in 2012 from 2,944.

Nissan's LCV market share rose from 3.6% to 4.8% helped by strong NV200 sales growth to 2,336 units, a 114% increase over 2012. The Primastar, Cab-star, NV400 and Navara pick up also reported sales growth in this period.

"Our fleet sales growth is a sign of the investment we have been making in all aspects of our business over the past two years," said Barry Beeston, Nissan GB's corporate sales director.

"With the current launch of the all-new NOTE into the B-sector and the further investment in our dealer network we hope to see continued fleet growth during the remainder of 2013," he added.

Weymouth rugby club

Volunteers rewarded for hard work

RECOGNITION of the hard work done by volunteers of Weymouth Rugby Club was once again recognised at the annual barbecue held in their honour.

Volunteer co-ordinator Jon Monaghan thanked everyone who had given their time to the club over the last year and issued a selection of awards of recognition at the beginning of Volunteer Week.

He said: "The volunteers have undertaken several significant pieces of work in the last year not only to raise money for the club but to also assist in introducing the sport to the public.

"These include holding two beer festivals to raise club funds; hosting several rugby festivals for veterans and mini and youth age groups; and supporting the RFU's stand over three weeks at the Olympic Weymouth Live sports event on the beach.

"They also helped introduce the game of rugby to all ages with tag rugby on the sand where thousands of people visiting the site were encouraged to have fun and learn more about the sport.

"All of this and more would not be possible if it were not for volunteers.

"Weymouth Rugby Club like other similar organisations cannot survive without these people who carry out every role.

"They work tirelessly as coaches, caterers, bar staff and carry out maintenance of the pitches as well as the clubhouse and facilities."

Mr Monaghan ensured volunteers were thanked for their efforts and issued individuals with volunteer week certificates, RFU volunteer certificates and gift vouchers as a small token of thanks.

■ THANK YOU: Volunteers who received recognition of their hard work at the barbecue.

Magpies news

WITH STUART BROOM

£1m prospect Moore joins the Glovers

DORCHESTER Town have agreed terms for the transfer of Kieffer Moore to Championship side Yeovil Town.

Subject to the striker passing a medical and agreeing personal terms, Moore will officially join the Glovers this week where he has been training and was given special dispensation by the Magpies to play a part in Yeovil's first pre-season friendly at Poole Town last Saturday where he scored the opening goal.

Magpies manager Phil Simkin has always been resigned to the former Truro City player moving on, believing that he was destined for much higher things.

"I believe he's destined to be a million pound player in the next two seasons. There's every chance he will. He's a 6'4" striker that can score goals and is quick."

It was the county town boss who spotted his talent at the turn of the year, where despite scoring 13 goals for the Timmen no one appeared to have noticed him.

As with Ben Dickenson, who Simkin spotted at Christchurch and brought to the Avenue before selling him to Brighton & Hove Albion he saw the potential almost immediately.

"I knew within 20 minutes of seeing him in a trial on New Year's Day that he had the ability.

"He's on a separate development programme at Yeovil the moment; think what he is going to be like with full-time training?"

Although Moore has been training with Charlton Athletic and was interesting Bolton Wanderers among others, his chances of playing are increased by the fact that the Glovers squad is relatively small.

Simkin agreed, "He would only maybe have been in the development squad or the Under 21's at bigger clubs, but at Yeovil he is more likely to get the chance of Championship football because they are a smaller club, and that has to be good for Kieffer."

He added: "I have been in touch with Kieffer on a regular basis, and have wished him all the best and thanked him for his time with us. He has a great future."

replacement

The Magpies boss now has the job of finding a replacement, and confirmed that he has had talks with former Torquay United striker Tim Sills.

The 33-year-old teacher is moving to Poole to take up a new job and Simkin said: "I last spoke with him last Thursday.

"He's still living in Hertfordshire at the moment and not relocated yet, but I have invited him to pre-season training.

"He was full time with Basingstoke but is going to part-time for the first time ever and so he has a number of things to think about, as I do with regards to his salary demands and his age."

It would appear things are moving closer with regards to Jake Smeeton and Nick Crittenden signing new contracts.

"It's ongoing. They have trained very, very well and I hope we can secure their signatures in the next couple of weeks."

Simkin also confirmed that he had run his eye over a couple of possible loanees in the AFC Bournemouth development squad and was in talks with Shaun Brooks over a possible move of a forward or wide player.

He said: "We need to get someone to help Watto (Ben Watson) up front if we can.

"We got away with just him in the first part of the season, but as we saw he is different player when you play a big man up there with him;

he's awesome."

On the goalkeeping front, Alan Walker-Harris is training with the Magpies.

"Alan helped us out last season for which I am very grateful and has been training again.

"I'm also delighted to say that young Jordan Tewkesbury who is 17-year-old and 6ft plus has been working with Tim Sandercombe and looking a terrific prospect."

Another player who has been training with the Magpies is Jamie Beasley who has attended all three sessions and is looking good according to simkin.

"Jamie has shown really well. He's still got some work to do to get himself up to the level of fitness, but he has shown some real flashes of what he is capable of.

As a local lad everyone would be delighted to see him back at the club but that is down to him. The chance is there, he has the ability."

South Dorset Cribbage League

Close finish as 'All Pegged Out' clinch league title

TEAMS from two Dorchester pubs dominated the South Dorset Cribbage League's 2012-13 season with Bulls Head based All Pegged Out being crowned as champions, and Tea Folk from The Sydney Arms as runners-up.

Sponsored once again by The Spice Centre, the league programme saw a season-long battle for top spot develop between the two sides, Tea Folk pulling out a five point lead at the half-way stage, only to be caught and overhauled by the Fordington team whose late run of wins eventually took them clear.

The winners received their trophy at the annual end-of-season Presentation Night held recently at Dorchester's Colliton Club.

The Blue Vinny at Puddletown were the league's wooden spoon winners, while in the league knock-out cup Tea Folk beat West Knighton's New Inn in a closely contested final.

Herbert scorches to ton in heatwave

DAVE Herbert didn't want to stay around long in the blazing sun on Saturday and so blasted his way to a superb ton in just 86 balls.

Herbert thumped 14 fours and five sixes at the Delph against Broadstone 2nds and saw them consolidate fourth spot in Division One.

Dorchester beat reigning champions Wimborne & Colehill to give them hope of retaining their Premier Division One status when the leagues are reorganised at the end of the season.

Their six-wicket victory sees them move within a point of Weymouth who went down at Poole Town.

There were good wins also for Bridport, where father and son Rod and Duane Gay starred in their fifth consecutive win, Cattistock, where Jon Legg took his season's average to 82, and Charlton Down who celebrated their tenth anniversary with a ten wicket win over Poole Town 4ths.

WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 176 ALL OUT LOST TO DORCHESTER 179-4 BY 6 WICKETS

DORCHESTER struck a decisive blow in their bid to void relegation to the new Premier Division Two next season with a fine six wicket win at reigning champions Wimborne & Colehill.

Set 177 for victory they breezed past their hosts total with 13 overs to spare.

Wimborne lost Andy Hayward (3) early on bowled by Quenton Miller (2-37) but opener Ben Bridgen stood firm as wickets began to fall at regular intervals as James Caldwell (2-38) and later Sam Goodhew (4-37) chipped away.

Bridgen eventually succumbing for a fine 68 that held the innings together.

In reply, Miller (2) was an early victim, but former first teamer Colin Edney, who has been performing consistently in the second's good run of late, stepped up to show selectors he is still a potent force with 48 in an excellent second wicket stand of 124 with Rob Waite (54) that won the game for Dorchester.

Goodhew weighed in with 17 and skipper Dan Belt was 15 not out as the county town cruised home.

POOLE TOWN 218-7 BEAT

WEYMOUTH 217 ALL OUT BY 3 WICKETS IN an extraordinary game that saw extras total a quarter of Weymouth's 217 all out, the Seaside failed to take advantage and went down to a three wicket defeat that sees Dorchester draw to within a point of them at the bottom of the table.

Poole Town bowled a total of 59 extras, 47 of them wides, and after losing openers Paul Payne (11) and Tom England (5) early, it was left mainly to Jonny Armfield (39) and Will McKay (37) to set the tone.

Kieron Womble (22), Jim Ryall (22) and skipper Matt Lawes (20) contributed later on and although they collapsed from 204-5 to lose their last five wickets for 13 runs, they set their hosts a fair score to chase.

However opener Brewster Surridge soon dispelled any thoughts of early success with a solid 85, and with John Salt (31) giving support it looked like an easy target.

But Simon Browne (4-43) and Lawes (2-27) helped reduced Poole Town to 161-5 before Dave Miller (20) saw them over the line with five overs to spare.

Division One

BROADSTONE 2ND 249-9 LOST TO MARTINSTOWN 353 ALL OUT BY 104 RUNS

DAVE Herbert blasted his way to a superb ton as Martinstown went to town scoring 353 with all but the two tailenders getting runs.

Herbert, who joined this season from Bridport, has been nursing a hamstring injury recently decided he was not going to hang around or run as he struck 86 of his 100 in boundaries, although he was dropped at long-off just after reaching his half century.

He shared an opening partnership of 79 with Ed Nichols (21) and then joined by Lee House (15) another 76 for the second wicket, before he departed on 169-3.

Solid middle order knocks from Sam Kershaw (33), Danny Dancer (32), Stuart Fry (39) and Liam Banfield (29) saw the hosts roast in the field as Martinstown were all out off the last ball of their 50 overs. Only R Poole (4-70) was really successful with the ball.

Martinstown's opening pair of Chris Read (1-22) and Fry (0-10) were very good bowling in tandem, before a shoulder niggle meant Fry had to be removed from the attack.

Despite the daunting total Broadstone settled down to defy the visiting attack and all the top order scored runs.

However, it was Harry Leadbetter (64) and Ben Griffiths (45) that were most defiant in denying Martinstown maximum points as the two added over 100 between them, and hard as they tried Martinstown could not bowl their opponents out but left them well short on 249-9.

Skipper Dancer who took 2-20 said: "This was a really good win for us over a team just below us which has increased the gap a little bit."

"It was obvious after the first 10 overs that 353 was out of their reach so it was then just a case of trying to get the full bowling points.

"I tried a number of approaches but we just ran out of time at the end getting them nine down with Liam Banfield (1-40) and Sam Kershaw (3-67) bowled well in tandem during the middle overs.

"We scored 330 against them at home so it was nice to back it up with another big total.

"Dave has been a great acquisition for us this year. He hit some really big blows and got us off to a great start which we did well to convert into a big total.

"Our bowler's also performed well, and it was difficult to get breakthroughs but we stuck at it."

Division Two

BEAMINSTER 121 ALL OUT LOST TO CHRISTCHURCH 122-6 BY 4 WICKETS BEAMINSTER went down to their third home defeat on the trot, this time against high-flying Christchurch.

Once again missing important players, Beaminster struggled once the top of the order had gone with the dangerous James Cross (2-32) removing Fred Everitt (6) and Simon Jones (16).

Wes Lewis (8) and Ross Baker (1) soon followed, but it looked like skipper Will Everitt (22) and Dean Hyett (29) were building a useful platform with a stand of over 50 before they both succumbed to the spinners Nick Marsh (4-15) and John Adams (3-32), after which the tail was swept away with Beaminster only mustering 121 all out.

There was early success for Baker (2-32), bowling Adams (2), but G Williams (32) went for his shots as Christchurch passed 50 inside 10 overs.

However, Jack Walklett (2-20), Mark Barber (0-29) and Jones (1-20) subdued them with some tight bowling as Nick Aubin (39) and James Dugan (18) slowly worked their way to victory.

Everitt said: "Another 50-60 runs would have made it interesting, but once we were a bit short of batsmen again, but I was not too disheartened as they are a top side."

"Ross bowled very well again, and our bowling in general was very tidy."

Division Three

CATTISTOCK 168-4 BEAT STALBRIDGE 2ND 164 ALL OUT BY 6 WICKETS CATTISTOCK moved to just one point behind Dorchester 2nds after this convincing victory over an experienced Stalbridge 2nds.

The visitors won the toss and decided to bat, but lost their opener leg before to Martin Langford's second ball of the innings, before Lee Anderson bowled dangerman Matt Chant with a beauty to leave them 10-2.

James Lewis was batting beautifully however and reached 68 before he ruptured a cruciate ligament that saw him taken to hospital.

At 100-7, Ian Lomas-Walker (21) and Charlie Middle (35) came together and added 64 for the eight-wicket before Langford (4-35) and Bradley Damon (3-35) wrapped up the innings.

Steve Tucker (37) and Jon Legg put on 79 for the first wicket in reply and although Cattistock slumped to 120-4, a brisk 30 not out from Damon including three 6s, and another solid innings from Legg (54 not out) saw them add an unbeaten 48 for victory, with Harry Woolway (3-30) the most successful Stalbridge bowler.

DORCHESTER 2ND 182 ALL OUT LOST TO PORTLAND RT 234-8 BY 52 RUNS DORCHESTER 2nds lost ground on leaders Cerne Valley with a shock defeat at home to Portland Red Triangle.

WEYMOUTH 2ND 159-7 BEAT BROADSTONE 3RD 158 ALL OUT BY 3 WICKETS WEYMOUTH made it an impressive three wins on the trot which takes them out of the bottom two for the first time this season.

Division Four

WEYMOUTH LONGSHOTS 138 ALL OUT LOST TO BRIDPORT 266 ALL OUT BY 128

RUNS

Father Rod, and son Duane, Gay were the stars of this win which saw Bridport's fifth consecutive win on the trot.

Taking advantage of winning the toss in the heat against nine men, Mark Smith (18) and Rod Gay got Bridport off to a solid start posting 35 before Smith was caught behind.

Gay (35) was typically explosive in his stroke play before he missed one and was bowled middle stump. When skipper Liam Toohill (16) followed Bridport were wobbling at 70-3.

Will Meech (8) soon followed, but with Alex Lee (10) quite content to give Duane Gay (96) the strike, the two added 81 for the fifth wicket.

Jamie Dollman (8) did likewise, adding 34 with Gay who knocked the ball into the gaps, ran well and put the bad ball away to the boundary, before both fell with the score on 206; Gay stumpd four short of his century.

The scoring didn't finish there. Ollie Lee hit a rapid 42 including eight 4s, two of which were with his left hand, and Tristan Gale (12) saw the innings close off the last ball.

In reply Ollie Lee (1-35) dismissed M Hardy (14) with the score on 26, before a comical ten overs followed in which the home side dropped both Longshots batsmen four times each.

In that time opener J Trevitt (64) and S Nahayke (33) added 91 runs and threatened to upset the odds.

Toohill introduced Rod Gay (4-22) to the attack and his influence was immediate, picking up two wickets in two balls including the dangerous Trevitt.

Toohill (3-22) then got revenge on Nahayke who, having taken 12 off the first four balls of his over, got ambitious and tried scooping the ball over his own head where Dollman took a superb catch at gully, diving full length to take the catch one handed close to the ground.

At 131-4 the rest of the batting collapsed to 138 all out and a fifth consecutive victory.

Toohill said: The win was massive for us, five wins in a row is brilliant. There is a little gap opening up behind us in the table now and if we can get another 20 points on Saturday then that will be a big help.

"Rod, Duane, Ollie and everyone in between batted brilliantly; the comeback we had in the field was excellent. We do need to work on our catching however!"

ABBOTSBURY 262-7 BEAT DORCHESTER 3RD 89 ALL OUT BY 173 RUNS

MARTINSTOWN 2ND 93 ALL OUT LOST TO CREWKERNE 94-3 BY 7 WICKETS

MARTINSTOWN 2nds won the toss and elected to bat on a fantastic looking batting track under clear blue skies.

However, it quickly became apparent that runs were going to be hard to come by.

Crewkerne's opening bowlers Darren Parsons (1 for 11 from 7 overs) and Dan Rowsell (2 for 18 from 6) bowled a great opening spell offering little to the home sides batsmen, who were quickly three men down with the score still in single figures.

Tom Bracey (21) provided some resistance but Crewkerne's change bowlers proved just as effective as their opening pair, with Robbie James (3-24), and Mark Culpit (3-14) dismissing the home side for 93 from 30 overs.

In reply Crewkerne made short work of the run chase reaching the required target within 15 overs.

Chris Gould top scored with 31, concluding the game with an emphatic six.

Division Six

PUDDLETOWN 281-5 BEAT BEAMINSTER 2ND 160-9 BY 121 RUNS

BEAMINSTER put in another spirited performance but had no answer to opener Lucas Allen who scored 124 not out, repeating his feat in the reverse fixture at The Memorial Playing Field earlier in the season and taking his total to five already in this campaign.

Although Rob Meech (2-55) had early success bowling Mike Hoffman (5), Chris Ascott (38) and Steven Chaldecott (42) helped ensure Beaminster spent a long time in the field as they reached 281-5 in their 45 overs; Ollie Boxall (2-48) the most successful bowler.

David Hall and Shaun Annetts started cautiously in reply with only 11 scored in the first eleven overs with Annetts taking a nasty blow on the wrist but carrying on.

Nearly all of the middle order got starts but apart from Rob Meech (37) nobody was able to go on to make a big score, although they manage to bat out their overs to deny Puddletown maximum points.

Captain Hugh Rathbone said: "I have to say a big thanks to all of the team who's spirits are still extremely high considering we have yet to win this season."

CHARLTON DOWN 113-0 BEAT POOLE TOWN 4TH 112 ALL OUT BY 10 WICKETS CHARLTON Down had no problems at home to Poole 4ths.

After dismissing the visitors for 112; James Pretty (4-15); Jae Miller (61 not out) and Sam Roles (42 not out) cruised past the total without losing a wicket.

Sunday Division Three

WITCHAMPTON 211-3 BEAT SYMENE 209-5 BY 7 WICKETS

TEN MAN Symene suffered another defeat and remain at the bottom of Division Three.

They got off to a bad start losing Mark Smith without a run on the board, but Phil Hawkins, who batted extremely well for his 83, and Nick Skyrme (28) added 82 for the second wicket.

The total was boosted by Liam Toohill (36 not out) who took the score beyond the 200 mark with 21 off the last over.

Opener Paul Allaway proved the major stumbling block in reply, carrying his bat for 90 not out.

At one point the hosts were behind the clock with only 105 on the board off 24 overs, but Humphreys ensured victory with a quick-fire 58, Mark Tozer providing the highlight in the field with a superb direct hit for a run out.

Get set for the Jurassic Coast run

SUNDAY'S Jurassic Coast run starts to gather momentum with more runners signing up daily and more sponsors becoming involved.

The 10k and 5k cross-country runs and the Fun Run, which are jointly organised by the Bridport Leisure Centre, Brit Valley Rotary Club and Bridport Runners start at 10am with the event opening at 9am at the Bridport Leisure Centre (BLC) for registration, preparation and warm-up.

Entry forms for all runs are available at the BLC's reception desk; entries will also be taken on the day.

There are three different distances to choose from - a family Fun Run and two serious runs of five and ten kilometres. The Fun Run and treasure hunt is a fun event for the whole family on a flat course around the fields of the Bridport Leisure Centre.

There, visitors can also enjoy a bouncy castle, an inflatable session in the swimming pool, taster sessions and free use of the centre's facilities; food and refreshments will be provided as well.

The 5k run which includes the beautiful Jurassic Coast at West Bay is mainly aimed at the relatively new runners and those who want to get back into running.

The highlight however, is the 10k run which will be mainly off-road, leading the participants to the top of Thorncombe Beacon near Eype; the second highest hill on the south coast. It is therefore aimed at more established runners who are up for a challenge. A number of local sponsors have promised their support to make the event a success for everyone involved. Thanks to West Dorset Leisure Holidays at Eype, the two longer runs will cross the caravan park and joining fields of Highlands End.

Both the 5k and the 10k will be timed events with prizes for the fastest female and male runners, donated by local companies Richard Batten Jewellers, Gary Pitcher Locksmith, A.G. Down Funeral Directors as well as the Brit Valley Rotary Club and Bridport Runners.

For enquiries about the Bridport Jurassic Coast Run please contact Brian Shelley: Tel. (01308) 459 942 or email jane_brianshelley@yahoo.co.uk.
